Volunteer Corner

Communion at Mass runs smoothly with the dedicated experience of this month's volunteer! Phyllis Torok, shown with her nephew Travis and dog Piper, has been offering Communion during our Masses for many years. We can always rely on her to jump in and help out if a replacement is needed as well as her regular scheduled days.

After Mass, she quietly and respectfully removes all of the Sacred Vessels, washes them carefully and stores them for the next week. And, if you ever wondered who keeps our corporals and purificators sparkling white and sharply pressed - well that would be Phyllis! A quiet presence, we thank Phyllis for her dedication and work for St. Cecilia's. Tell her "thank you" when you see her. THANK YOU, PHYLLIS! ST. C'S LOVES YOU!
